Lyndal thanked everyone for coming to the Christmas Party. He also thanks all the club officers for their work that they have done for the club for the past year.

The Alan Lacer demo will be Saturday, April 23rd. and Sunday April 24th, 2016. Price for the Saturday demo will be $35 and will consist of making boxes in the morning and working with a skew in the afternoon. The demo is open to everyone. Price for the Sunday "Hands On" with Alan will be $125 and will be first come, first serve. There will only be room for 8 people. Lunch is included. If you are interested in either day you can email John Haight at: jhaight@fs.fed.us.

Roger Nank will not be doing the January demo because of an injury to his arm. Instead, Lyndal will do a demo on offset turning.

An open turning day is set for January 16th, 2016.

If there is any doubt about a meeting being canceled because of bad weather, you can call Lyndal at 563.599.8042 or email him at lmLyndal@aol.com. He checks his mail frequently. Don't send a text because he hasn't quite figured out how to use a smart phone yet.

The auction for the steady rest and boring bar ended at 8:00 p.m. on December 1st. Mary Scanlan won the steady rest and Bob Chorak won the boring bar.

Challenge

Our challenge for December was "Pyrography". The winner of the challenge was Mary Scanlan. She won a $10 gift certificate to Craft Supplies.

Member of the Year

Member of the year was Joni Overhouse. She was awarded with a plaque for her service to the club for 2015.
